- About the Event:

We learnt to develop sense of awareness towards flag and responsibility and pride of flag of a citizen. We were also guided about the campaign and its origin. The “Har Ghar Tiranga” campaign is part of the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, which is a government campaign to promote patriotism and awareness. The campaign encourages people to bring the Indian flag, or Tiranga, home and hoist it to mark the 75th year of India’s independence. The campaign has become a people’s movement, with people from all across the country hoisting the Tiranga. The campaign has especially impacted the youth and children and has encouraged them to preserve the memories of India’s freedom struggle. The students learned guidelines for the respect of flag. The Flag can be of any size but the ratio of the length to the height shall be 3:2. Whenever the National Flag is displayed, it should occupy the position of honor and should be distinctly placed. A damaged or disheveled Flag shall not be displayed.

We geared up with gloves and trash bags to clean up the dirt. As it was raining that day the rubbish and mud had become a heavy muck. We saw how wood, plastic and wrappers from the sea collected and piled up and how proper disposal of waste was not being done hence the pile up.

➤ Beneficiaries/ Participants and number- 50

o Students (In-House / Out-House): 21

➤ About the Event (Event Flow, if available): Upon visiting Chuim Community Center we learnt that this is not an orphanage but a place where low income parents of the area keep their children when they are at work. The sister in charge told us about how before parents would give their children cough medicine to put them to sleep so that the parents could go to work. Parents would also discourage the children from studying and would keep them at home. The community center looks after infants past 6 months to about 4 years old. There are rules to be followed for the child to be admitted. The child must be washed, clothes ironed and clean shoes. The parents can do these things in the community center as well only then are they allowed inside. If any child complains of issues at home the parents are called and the child is not allowed to attend classes till the parents come for a counseling session. The Community center also has computer classes and stitching classes. The children are provided with breakfast, milk, nutrient packed ladoos, and lunch by afternoon parents must pick the child up. The infant and toddlers are kept on the ground floor and the bigger children are on the first floor. There is also a doctor who comes to check on the children when required.

➤ About the Event: We started the event with an introduction of NSS, its aims and objectives. We took an oath as NSS volunteers and decided to go the extra mile and were introduced to all the teachers who are a part of NSS in our college. They told us about the benefit of joining NSS, that it gives us a taste of the real world, which only being in a classroom can never teach you. Our Guest of honor Ms. Rashmi is not only a plant enthusiast but also a kind generous person who donated 100 indoor plant saplings for all our volunteers. The plants brought were high oxygen producing plants that improve the quality of the air in the house. She also taught us seed ball making. She told us when we eat any fruit, the seeds should be placed in water for a while so that any residue comes off. We then have to completely dry the seed for a few days. After doing this we should take some mud and compost/natural manure and make a dough consistency. Place 1 seed in a little mud ball, close it and keep it dry for a while. The purpose of this is it protects the seed and increase the shelf life of the seed when planted. It also provides the seed with nutrients.

2. Red Run Marathon for Youth at MDACS,Wadala

Name Of the Event: Mdacs Red Run Marathon

Name Of the Department Organized: NSS Cell Of University Of Mumbai

Level: University

Organizing Team: Omesh Gughee

Po- Dr. Pratima Goyal

Day and Date: Sunday, 10th September, 2023

Time: 5:00 Pm To 11:00 Pm

Students (In-House / Out-House)- 2

About the Event: Mumbai District AIDS Control Society (MDACS) organized a Red Run Marathon on 10th September, 2023 for Youth at MDACS, Wadala. We reported at the spot at 7am. We were encouraged by Mr.Omesh throughout. There were water bottles and curd all over to stay hydrated before the race. Although running a marathon can be a scary and painful endeavor, training for and running a race can offer a number of benefits for the body, mind, and soul. In fact, it's a collective story of community, encouragement, and wellbeing that we've embarked as a whole. Our well-being focused community and colleagues were instrumental in nudging us to take on the half-marathon first and eventually graduating to signing-up for full-marathons later. These "well-being well-wishers" provided not just cheers but a constant source of encouragement, monitoring and motivation. The more we are open to doing things with each other, the more we will contribute to our mission of accelerating progress. We met teams of staff of MDACS from various hospitals. There was a closing ceremony where IAS and IPS also awarded the winners from both boys and girls category leading to a musical and interactive end as well. Running for a cause on Sunday is better than sleeping. The conclusion: Students were awarded prizes of 10000, 5000, and 2000 for the places. We showcased the cause from our T shirt and the healthy refreshments made it worth the running and People can live with HIV for years before being diagnosed. Delays in diagnosis mean delays in starting life-extending treatment. People living with undiagnosed HIV also have the greatest chance of transmitting the virus to others. That's why it's important to get tested. Doctors called us white warriors of NSS and we were dispersed at 10:00 with group photos and memories.

- Time: 9:30 pm to 5:30 pm

Total beneficiaries- 75

➤ About the Event: This mega blood donation drive was organized by Terapanth Yuvak Parishad Dadar under the guidance of Akhil Bhartiya Terapanth Yuvak Parishad in collaboration with NSS CELL OF MUMBAI UNIVERSITY, SBTC, Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Seva Sangathan Sanstha, Nair Hospital. The motive of this drive was to bring together all the youth for the betterment of the society as we can make out from the name of the event as UNITING CORPORATES BY BLOOD. Doctors from Nair hospital were the ones extracting the blood. It was overall a new experience going up to strangers and asking them for blood. Some jokingly asked if we were giving blood as they were in need and not in the state to give. Others had given the month before so the gap between donations was too short, others were underweighted or had health issues or were fasting for Ganapati. But all in all it was a long but fruitful day. The slogan to take ahead was a powerful one which is Nutan Chintan-Naya Vikas, Yuvakon Me Jaage Vishwaas. We volunteered for the drive. The eligible volunteer from us was Sarah Marie Dsouza who also contributed by donating blood. Hence BE A HERO, DONATE BLOOD. BE A LIFE GIVER, DONATE BLOOD

Kukis, nagas and meiteis. There are 3 tribal groups in nagaland

The incharge of Manipur is branding and stereotyping people and not dealing with the issue

There were groups of bands and college groups who won prizes that sang along various songs of Gandhiji depicting nonviolence and a simple lifestyle towards taking the ground India towards the successful peak and embracing the simplicity of life lifestyle through songs and reciting bhajans. The evening was a very memorable experience. Students were given refreshments and there were so many people listening to the bhajans and there were guides too. There were honorable dignitaries present for the program who guided us on the righteous path of nonviolence of Gandhiji. Gandhiji was glorified and spoken about in the program and followed by it the budgets and they ended around 7:00 PM in the evening and the students were dispersed as there were people from far distances and from various districts. The event made us realize what Gandhiji has done for the nation and why he deserved to be called as Mahatma with his simplicity yet knowledgeable precise mind. Making us aware about Japan's prestigious Koyasan University on December 26 formally conferred an honorary doctorate on Maharashtra Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis, the first instance in the 120 years of the university's history.

The event was for the convocation of the degree

The NSS volunteers along with professor of the university with cabinet minister placed their presence in appreciating it

We saw Devendra Fadnavis speak in Japanese to the audience. Addressing the attendees during the conferral function at Mumbai University, in the presence of Japanese dignitaries and a number of his cabinet colleagues, Mr. Fadnavis dedicated his honorary doctorate to the people of Maharashtra, while thanking the Japanese government for "standing like a rock" behind India and its enormous contribution in Maharashtra's infrastructure projects. "This is such a prestigious university whose history goes back to 1,200 years. They have awarded it to me in recognition of the work done by my colleagues and myself in the fields of infrastructure, water management, and the industrial field. This has only been possible due to the blessings of the people of Maharashtra," he said in Japanese which was novel and amazing. Stating that good governance was key to take any State forward, Mr. Fadnavis said that Maharashtra was always known for its good governance.

"I am happy that Maharashtra is again number one in the field of foreign direct investment. Today, it is Maharashtra, and not Bengaluru or Hyderabad, which is known as India's start-up capital. But we want to improve more...I am looking at Maharashtra in its 75th anniversary. I am thinking about what the State can achieve by 2035 and what we can do to help achieve it. This is a State with limitless possibilities. If we can harness all our strength, no one can stop Maharashtra,"

The programme then led to Japan University speaking about their experience, the exchange of vote of thanks, and ended with national anthem.

Leaving all the beneficiaries back to their respective work.

Later began our planning and practice for the street play that we were to perform for the school children (Std. 1-10). We were given a motivational talk by Dr. Ulhas Vasave on all the struggles he went through growing up in the village and how through hard work and determination nothing is impossible and that no goal is too impossible to achieve. He also explained the importance of giving back to society as the circle of life continues. We then rehearsed our street plays. On the occasion of National Youth Day, we each looked up 5 teachings of Swami Vivekanand. Reading them taught and inspired us further. We ended the day with report writing of the day's activities.

About the event:

We started the day with pit making (shramdan), the purpose of the pit was for composting. It was done on the campus of the college so that they would place their wet waste over the year and use the compost obtained for the maintenance of the numerous fruits and plants all over the campus. We cleaned up and got ready for a prayer session held daily by the Community College students, we sang the National Anthem, and repeated the Indian Constitution. We then performed our skits in the college. Our topics were on various social issues like: domestic violence, good touch/ bad touch, personal hygiene, saving trees, and disposing of waste properly. We had a social awareness skit for the tribal women on the topic of “Violence against Women” and how to act against it. This was followed by the inauguration of the tree plantation program by an NGO (Johnson’s Control India). We assisted in planting a kitchen garden consisting of a variety of vegetables in a 30*30 ft. area is divided in circles in the order of 15ft, 10.5ft, 9ft, 6ft, 4.5ft, 3ft. It would take about 2-3 months for the vegetables to be edible and needed to be watered regularly. We then had a poster making competition on the topics of Swami Vivekanand ji. Ended the day with report writing.

Day and Date: 14th January 2024

Venue: Gyan Jyoti Community College Kharajgaon, Maharashtra, India

Participants: 18 NSS Students

Management Representative: Dr. Pratima Goyal (NSS Program Officer), Mrs. Vibhuti Khedekar

About the event:

We started the day with yoga conducted by one of our NSS volunteers and learned how to do Surya namaskar. We then left for the dam building activity in the nearby area at Manpada. Since it was the occasion of Makar Sankranti we went and came from the village walking in the sun so the rays could get absorbed and help store vitamin D for a long time in our bodies. To build the Vanrai Bandhara we had to fill sacs with mud and stones and tie them up. We then place them in two parallel lines across the lake to restrict the water flow. We then packed mud between the parallel lines to ensure the water doesn't flow through and a proper Vanrai Bandhara is formed. Mr. Dayanand from Manpada told us about the several benefits of building the Vanrai Bandhara like: - the collected water can be used to wash clothes, utensils etc -can be used by the cattle of the area -it will get relocated, pass through the ground and fill the nearby wells -the collected water will remain there for some time -the activity helped us to learn how to build a Vanrai Bandhara. After this activity we went to the nearby village of Brahmanpada. We had prepared Channa chaat which is rich in proteins, vitamin B12, and a Tamarind and Jaggery water for the village people of the local area. We donated some clothes and stationery and served what we prepared. We also performed our social awareness skits for the villagers. Upon returning we discussed our action plan for the next day, contemplating all the lessons that were learnt that day. And ended it with report writing

NSS SPECIAL CAMP DAY- 5

Day and Date: 15th January 2024

Venue: Gyan Jyoti Community College Kharajgaon, Maharashtra, India

Participants: 18 NSS Students

Management Representative: Dr. Pratima Goyal (NSS Program Officer), Dr Anjali Srivastav

About the event:

We started the day with a yoga session followed by a fun Zumba session both conducted by our NSS volunteers. We then had a session with Sister Gracy on “value and ethics”. She started her session with Vipassana. We learnt about the pollution and environmental problems in Hetti and how they recycle plastic, we also took the ecology pledge. She also told us about the killing of twins in Madagascar and how she helped in stopping it, how the girls upon puberty were placed in separate huts to get married.

We then had a session with Sister Claria who is also a lawyer, she taught us the difference between cognisable and non-cognisable offences, the different ranks of police officers and who to approach. We learnt about the DU Act 2005, sexual harassment at workplace 2013 and the 1961 Dowry law. We were then given examples of cases and how we had to respond in those situations. The next thing on our agenda was the visit to the school where we interacted with the students of different age groups. We made them perform crafts, sing, asked questions, played games like Kho Kho etc. Their bright smiling faces also brightened our day. Upon returning we discussed our expenses and the next day’s plan. We ended the day with report writing.

NSS SPECIAL CAMP DAY-6

Day and Date: 16th January 2024

Venue: Gyan Jyoti Community College Kharajgaon, Maharashtra, India

Participants: 18 NSS Students

Management Representative: Dr. Pratima Goyal (NSS Program Officer),

About the event:

Our day began with the mandatory yoga and Zumba session that gave us the energy and motivation needed for the day. We were lucky enough to get a first-hand Masterclass by a teacher from the college in Warli painting session, where we painted the Tarpa dance on a card. We then attend a firsthand class on rice papad making where we also each made our own papad. It starts by making a batter with rice flour, salt, water, jeera. Place a spoon of the batter on a metal plate, turn the plate around till a round circle of the batter is formed. We then steam the batter for a few minutes, remove and immerse the plate in water and using a long needle remove the cooked batter and sun dry for a day. This can be deep fried later for consumption. We then had a class on making nilgudchi tel (herbal oil) made with papaya leaves, water, mustard oil, nilgudi leaves. Post these classes we went to the nearby school to meet the students one last time. We performed our skits, played with them and bid them goodbye in the promise that we would visit again one day. Upon returning to Gyan Jyoti we bought some of the things that the local girls had made.

The hostel girls then taught us how to do the tarpa dance and we taught them Zumba in return. We all danced together then had a bhel party prepared by us. We ended our day with report writing.

About the event:

Our final day started with yoga and peaceful meditation followed by Zumba and breakfast. We then started packing away our things and got ready to leave. We bid our final farewells to all the staff of Gyan Jyoti Community College and departed for our respective homes.

The experiences and memories gained during this trip was truly enlightening. We learned many things both practically and about ourselves. We learned to appreciate many of the things we used to take for granted. The friendships built during this trip gives us a special bond. We learned the importance of being punctual and disciplined and that there is power in unity.
