

New India Literacy Program Week Celebration

The New India Literacy program (NILP) aims to improve literacy rates in India through various programs and campaigns to raise awareness about importance of literacy and education and to educate the illiterate citizens of India. Every year 1st of Sept to 8th of Sept is celebrated as NILP week featuring a range of activities and events to inspire youth to embrace literacy and spread literacy.

Nirmala Niketan college of Home Science organized various activities included book readings , book donation, book fair, E-Poster making competition & made a REEL showcasing importance of NILP by the students.

- 1- Book Donation drive & Book fair: - We received more than 100 books from of different categories, self-help, motivational, comics, art – painting, fictional, nonfictional, health sciences, nutrition, spiritual etc. These books were then displayed for all students to browse and pick up the book of their choice and take home for free of cost. Around more than 90 students benefited from this activities. Some students picked the book to donate to their domestic helper. This event was conducted from 3rd of Sept to 5th of Sept
- 2- E- Poster making competition:- On 5th September, we organized E- Poster making competition with the theme of “Significance of reading & writing in our life. We receive a good response for this activities. The first 3 best poster were awarded with a certificate.
- 3- Slogan banner/placard making activity:- On 3rd of September, students volunteered to make banner, placards of NILP slogans. These slogans are displayed on the college notice board to create the awareness of reading and writing. These slogans were also used by students to create awareness in their locality.
- 4- Reel:- SYJC 10 students took initiative in making a Reel depicting the importance of NILP scheme. This was prepared on 6th of September
